

5 Budget-Friendly Tips for a Childfree Trip to WALT DISNEY WORLD

Beat the heat

The two weeks after New Years is a wonderful time to visit WDW.

Sharing is Caring

Split small plates and drinks during the Food & Wine Festival to save money.

Early Birds & Night Owls

Arrive when

1

VISIT IN THE COLDER MONTHS

October - February
(excluding holidays)

2

EXPLORE EPCOT

Food & Wine Festival
(Late August to Mid November)

3

GO EARLY / STAY LATE

Your best bet for avoiding long lines and large crowds

4

SAVE ON SOUVENIRS

Ask yourself, "Do I really need it?"

5

SPLURGE ON DINING

Character dining & WDW Signature Restaurants

the park opens or stay after dark. Avoid fireworks and you'll avoid crowds.

Save Money

Do you really need that plastic lightsaber? Every ride ends in a shop but you can resist the urge to buy.

Spend Wisely

Disney Signature Restaurants prepare all meals from scratch.

Visit Trader Sam's after 8 pm for a childfree dining experience.